

Anita Coulton is a fly fishing guide for Cross Current Guide service on the Upper Delaware River, a Five Star Rated Orvis Endorsed Guide Service. She is also a well known and respected competitive angler on the top ranked Team Freestone. She has competed alongside both Team USA and World Team members, and has multiple top 10 finishes.

Highlights include:

- *2014 Spring Creek Masters 1st place Team
- *2014 Deep Freeze, Chittenango NY: 2nd place Individual
- *2014 CNY Classic 2nd place Team
- *2010 AuSable Two Fly First Place winner

Winner of the 2017 New Jersey Fly Fisherman of the Year, Anita has also had several fly fishing articles published, the most recent being in Dun Magazine.

Contact Nymphing Presentation Outline:

- Leader set up including how to tie your own
- Casting techniques that make this technique so effective
- Strategies for differing water conditions to increase your catch rate
- When, where, and how to fish multiple flies
- Techniques for catching fish in shallow water